Friends of the Richland Library

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES*

- Bookroom Volunteer – Work in the Friend's Bookroom selling books, processing book donations, and helping customers find the "right" book. We operate in two-hour shifts during normal library hours.
- Biannual Book Sale Volunteer – Help with the biannual book sales – setup, sales, cleanup.
- STEAM Program Volunteer – Help library staff setup and run a STEAM activity or even lead an activity. Monitor open time in the new STEAM space. Hold your own STEAM activity at the Library. Help with the business aspects: registrations, scheduling, handling payments, etc.
- Contributor – Contribute books or money. The Friends of the Richland Library is a United Way organization and can receive designated funds.
- Community Outreach for Friends and STEAM
  - Increase awareness of: bookroom, biannual book sales, need for donated books, need for funding donations, and need for volunteers.
  - Increase awareness of Library programs and new STEAM activities.
  - Increase membership and monetary donations from individuals and institutions
  - Promote STEAM space
    - Sign up for sponsored activities
    - Use space
  - Desired skills and experience
    - Experience or interest in promoting a charitable organization
    - Public outreach experience
    - Exceptional communication skills
    - Ability to generate content for web site, newsletter, news releases

*All volunteers must be able to meet the Richland Library's volunteer requirements.

Contact Steve Slate for more information or to volunteer.
Phone: 509-521-1836. Email: uplate100@gmail.com