

The 2018 Towner Award Nominees

The Towner Award is intended to complement other awards determined by student vote in the state of Washington; the Sasquatch, Washington's Children Choice Picture Book and Young Readers' Choice Awards. It is sponsored by the Washington Library Media Association and intended for books enjoyed by students in grades Two through Six. For the purposes of this award, Informational Text is defined as that which serves chiefly to convey factual information to the reader and may contain biography, narrative and other forms.
